5.5 Greenman/Card Cemetery Update:

B. Petrie explained several years ago, Lebanon resident Maurice Gamache was promised 6 plots in this cemetery by the Sexton in return for his care and upkeep over many years of this cemetery on Gates Road. A descendent of the Greenman family notified the Town in 2002 that this is a private cemetery, not owned by the Town and the Town has no authority to allow burials there. This situation was recently brought to the forefront when M. Gamache asked the Town about the procedure to install a family headstone in the cemetery.

B. Petrie said she met last week with Mr. and Mrs. Gamache, Cemetery Commission Chair Howard Wayland, Cemetery Commission member Keith LaPorte and Sexton Marcia Schuett to explain that the Town does not have ownership of the Greenman/Card Cemetery and has no authority to permit any burials there. H. Wayland would like the Town to pursue ownership under Section 19a-308a (Abandoned Cemeteries) of the Connecticut General Statutes, but that would be a lengthy and costly endeavor, as advised by Town counsel.
B. Petrie said M. Gamache has been offered plots in another colonial cemetery in Town and he is in discussion with the Sexton.
