Reports: Director/ Municipal Agent for the Elderly: The new 2022 leased van was delivered. and our transportation requests are busy at this time. Bingo and exercise class are doing well in attendance as well. A new monthly offering will be starting soon. It will be a get together for those affected by Alzheimers in it's early stages. Our afternoon tea and October Fest are returning as well. The "M" team met again in order to discuss resources that are available to seniors.

Senior Center Activities: The Pennsylvania and Newport trips were very popular. Upcoming adventures include: Goodspeed Opera House, New Years at Sea, and a cruise to the Panama Canal next year. Marion has decided to update the name of the group to Lebanon Senior Travelers.

The Friends are already working on their annual Christmas Bazaar scheduled for Dec. 3, 2022. They presently have 197 members and have added two new board members. The Art Sale held recently netted an amount of $1100, which will be donated to the Food Bank in Lebanon. The conference room near the main desk will be used as a place to offer for sale the creative items made by and donated to our seniors. The Friends may in the future offer two tag sales during the year instead of the usual one. They are in the process of approving the cost of publishing and mailing the recent brochure about our senior center that will be mailed to all Lebanon residents. They are working on updating some of their bylaws to a more modern wording. Also they are providing the funds to renovate the salon providing a washer and dryer as well as a craft room for $12,800.

Old Business: update on flyer

New Business: A motion was made by Marion Russo and seconded by Jane Cady to accept our mailing brochure created by Liz Shilosky minus 1 picture that will be replaced. Those in attendance were in agreement.

Public Forum:

Adjourn: Motion to adjourn at 2:05 was made by Marion Russo and seconded by Geri McCaw with those present in agreement
