Reports/Director Darcy Battye: Hours are presently down for transportation needs. Our Octoberfest Cabaret is this coming Friday evening and there are only 3 tickets left. The senior center will be closed Wednesday before Thanksgiving and Friday after. It will be closed the week following Christmas and reopening on January 2nd. There will be a Winter Farmer's Market held inside the senior center one Saturday each month starting on November 18th. The remaining two dates are December 16th and January 20th. Our center kitchen will be open to offer coffee, cider and a warm soup for sale.

Bingo: 33 attended the most recent Bingo and the Friday night Bingo was also well attended.

Trips: The two most recent trips taken by the Jr/Sr Travelers were the trip to Ireland and the trip to Amish Country in Pennsylvania. All in attendance agreed that these were amazing trips enjoyed by all.

Friends: The Friends have finally received the 5013-C that they were seeking. They will be hosting a meatloaf dinner for all Lebanon veterans on Veteran's Day, November 11th at the senior center. They are presently working towards the Christmas Bazaar which will be held on Saturday, December 2nd.

Luncheon: Attendance has been good for lunch. This week we served brunch strata & fruit salad.

Old Business: Definition of "town resident" for transportation purposes was decided to be on a case by case basis. Review of 2017/2018 Operating budget is on hold at present. Possible Capital items for 2018/2019 budget were listed as paint, chairs and tables. and possibly additional parking areas.

New Business: none presented at this time.

Public Forum: Repeated discussion about availability of able-bodied assistance to set up tables for Bingo. A few suggestions were made but no final decisions were made. The lighting outside is not operating properly again and this was supposedly fixed recently.
